PARSON TO PERSON

Exodus 4:10: And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

Moses shares his concern with our Lord, as God asks him to speak to the people, thinking he is not capable, “I’m not an eloquent speaker Lord. You need someone better.” You and I may have this same concern, but rest assured, It is what we say, not how we say it. When the Lord calls you to speak or teach, it is about what is said. Here are a few more words of encouragement from our historic brothers...

One act of obedience is better than one hundred sermons - D. Bonhoeffer
Nine-tenths of the difficulties are overcome when our hearts are ready to do the Lord’s will, whatever it may be. When one is truly in this state, it is usually but a little way to the knowledge of what His will is - George Mueller

Many Christians estimate difficulty in the light of their own resources, and thus they attempt very little and they always fail. All giants have been weak men who did great things for God because they reckoned on His power and presence to be with them - Hudson Taylor

The greatness of a man’s power is the measure of his surrender-- William Booth

PASTOR’S PICK

God’s Chosen Fast

By Arthur Wallis

Having proved over many years the great value and blessing of fasting, the author has written this book to share with others what the Bible has to say about this important and neglected subject. His aim has been to furnish a handbook which deals not only with all the main passages in Scripture that touch on the matter, but also with the practical issues involved.

The Church Fast:
Seeking God for a Conviction about Holiness

Part 6

(Colossians 3:1-2)...Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

(1 Corinthians 10:23)...all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

God wants us to receive the very mind and character of Christ in our souls and lives. Use of alcohol and drugs, sexual impurity, immodest clothing, tattoos, compromising relationships, coarse language and violent or unclean entertainment are examples of things we allow but which are inconsistent with God’s will for His people. They are things of this earth of which we would be ashamed of in God’s presence. While fasting, we will be praying for greater conviction of, as well as the power to deny ourselves these sorts of things to be a separated people, consecrated for God’s purposes. Brothers and sisters, let us grow in holiness.
