PARSON TO PERSON

O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. Jeremiah 10:23

I admire Jacob’s commitment to stay and labor in a difficult place until God directs him elsewhere. Then, even though the return to Canaan was filled with anticipated hardships, he submits himself fully to God’s will, and in the end he receives the great blessings of God. Instead of hastily deciding to cut and run, perhaps the blessing of real stability comes when we choose to stay put until God speaks clearly.

- Pastor John VanScott

PASTOR’S PICK

The Jesus Style by Gayle Erwin

“This book was born out of a crisis of understanding and purpose that occurred in my life during an early pastorate. At that time, I did not know how far-reaching the effects of that crisis would be. There came a point in which simple integrity demanded that I begin to match my pastoral activities to what I understood the Bible to teach, rather than permit tradition and cultural expectations to rule my actions. . . I have come to an understanding of principle and purpose that has rescued me and, in my view, has the potential of freeing the church to become what Jesus designed it to be.”

~Gayle Erwin

Each week, the Pastor’s Pick selections will be discounted 20% in The Chapel Store!
