PARSON TO PERSON

“While the Earth remains, seedtime and harvest and cold and heat and summer and winter and day and night shall not cease.”

Genesis 8:22 One thing that is constant in this life, other than death and taxes, is the changing of the seasons. We are about to say goodbye to the sunny, warm and dry weather of Summer, and hello to the cooler, wet and yet beautiful fall colors of Autumn. Much like the seasons, we too go through changes, some good and some not so good. That’s why it is so good to serve a God that never changes. Jesus is the same yesterday today and forever. He is the Maker (Ps 89.3) and Keeper (Ps 89.28) of the covenant. God has made a covenant/promise to work in your life and make all things beautiful in His time, His season. Allow the Lord to work. Yield to His hand, trust that He knows what He is doing, even if you don’t happen to like the season you’re in right now. Seasons change, and as you give more authority to Jesus, you will too.

He has made everything beautiful in His time. Ecclesiastis 3:11

PASTOR’S PICK

WHY?

BY ANNE GRAHAM LOTZ

Can you keep on trusting God when bad things are happening all around you - when the pain is sharp and the doubt is deep and its impossible to see the sense in it all? Drawing from her own life and from the familiar story of Lazarus in the Gospel of John, Anne shows how God can use your most baffling trials for His glory.

Each week, the Pastor’s Pick selections will be discounted 20% in The Chapel Store!
