PASTOR SCOTT

PARSON TO PERSON

“It is good for a man to bear the yoke in his youth. Let him sit alone and keep silent, because God has laid it on him;” Lamentations 3:27-28

It is such a blessing to begin our walk with the Lord early in life, since good habits, started early, are invaluable. God’s chastening and correction is meant to set us up for a fruitful future.

Let’s pray hard for our youth this week! That they might understand God’s corrective and guiding hand. That they would willingly surrender to our loving Father, as He shows himself strong to our young people.

PASTOR’S PICK

SECOND MILE PEOPLE

BY: ISOBEL KUHN

Second Mile People is the last of Isobel Kuhn’s books to be published. The manuscript was discovered tucked away among files several years after her death. In it she describes six friends and colleagues she knew from her work with the Lisu in China. They left a deep impression on Kuhn’s life with their faithful lives. They can do the same for you today.

Each week, the Pastor’s Pick selections will be discounted 20% in The Chapel Store!
