PASTOR SCOTT

WEDNESDAY EVENING 7:00

COMMUNION

PASTOR SCOTT GALLATIN

PARSON TO PERSON

“My Soul is continually in my hand:” Psalm 119:109

We have the awful freedom to do with our lives as “we” please. Many of us have suffered the consequences of this truth and still many of us will suffer more unless we follow the thought process and the heart of the Psalmist here in this verse.

“Yet do I not forget thy law.” Psalm 119:109

The autonomy of man working in union with the sovereignty of God, makes for a safe and satisfying life.

His Word, His Will, His Way.

-Pastor Jeff Gallatin

BY: EDWIN AND LILLIAN HARVEY

This is a compilation of testimonials from almost two hundred godly men and women describing the dangers of pride and the necessity of dependence upon God. Read how others, in traveling this journey of descent, discovered wings with which to soar into the heavenlies with Christ Jesus. The authors, Edwin F. and Lillian G. Harvey, have included an index of authors and Scripture texts. Your library is incomplete without this book.
