PARSON TO PERSON

Psalm 26:1 A Psalm of David.

“Vindicate me, O LORD, For I have walked in my integrity. I have also trusted in the LORD; I shall not slip.”

Like many of David’s psalms, this song was written during a time of trouble. David either was unable to vindicate himself or had chosen not to. David had confidence that God would answer his prayer and declare him innocent, because he trusted in the LORD. He demonstrated a faithful life. Despite his present difficulty, he could say, “I shall not slip.” Its powerfully freeing to walk through the difficulties of these days being right and walking right with our Lord.
