PARSON TO PERSON

“Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He prayed.” Mark 1:35

Jesus reminds us of the importance of solitude. Solitary time with God. It’s important for us to gather as a church and fellowship with others in the presence of our Lord. There is also much gained and learned in the quiet place with God. You may not be able to head to the mountains today or even tomorrow, but each morning, before you interact will all, find that solitude. Before you visit with all, meet with God, in the solitary place. Remember, we can only give from what we first received.
